STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. The defendant must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer.
- 3. The defendant must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. The defendant must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
- 5. The defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment.
- 6. The defendant must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
- 8. The defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any persons convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
- 9. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
- 10. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
- 11. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization/employer), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 12. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities.
- 13. The defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
